

Cora H. Cline Obituary

May 7, 1925 - April 4, 2011

She is survived by her son, James L. Cline, three sisters, Carloyn Lawson of Sylvester, GA, Edith Day of Cordele, GA and Annette Ball of Neosho, MO, two grandchildren, Major Jacquelyn Cline Magyar, U.S. Army, and James L. Cline, Jr., and one great grandson, Travis James Magyar and a number of nieces and nephews. Mrs. Cline was predeceased by her husband Byron L. Cline in 1974 and a brother, Earl McCrary of Doerun , GA. While living in Albany , she was a longtime member and children's Sunday School teacher at Byne Memorial Baptist Church before moving to Maryland in 1999. She was a homemaker while raising a family, and later a preschool assistant teacher at Byne Child Development Center . She was a great cook and well known for several traditionally southern dishes that her family enjoyed and often times requested.

Tribute Wall

“ Cora H. Cline Obituary

May 22, 2023 at 01:29 AM

“ Cora H. Cline Obituary

May 22, 2023 at 01:29 AM

“ Lamar, I learned of this to late to attend the services. My deepest sympathy. Mother told me she talked to you. Please email me at sgbacon@mediacombb.net if you have a chance. I would love to hear from you. Steve

Steve Bacon - April 10, 2011 at 12:00 AM