

Mrs. Corlia Mae Faircloth Rushing

May 13, 1927 - March 9, 2019

Corlia Mae Faircloth Rushing

Corlia passed away in her sleep March 9, 2019. There will be a visitation from 5:00 PM to 6:00 PM at Kimbrell-Stern on Monday March 11, 2019. Funeral services will be held Tuesday, March 12, 2019, at Crown Hill Cemetery at 2:00 PM.

She was a resident of Albany, Lee County for 54 years. Corlia was born outside of Seville Georgia in Wilcox County May 13, 1927. She moved to Plant City Florida as a child, later moved to Tampa where she graduated from Hillsborough Highschool and met and married James C. Rushing. Corlia was a supportive military wife for 42 years. She moved around the southeast, lived in Japan and returned to Southwest Georgia where she continued to raise her 3 children. She worked at Sears for many years and after retirement she continued her friendship with her fellow co workers with the Sears Best Club. Corlia was an avid golfer, bowler, loved to play bingo and enjoyed working in her yard. She was a member of the Women of Moose where she bowled on a competitive team and attended functions with her friends.

She was a devoted wife, sister, mother, grandmother and great grandmother. She will be missed by all who knew her.

Survivors include her sons Steve and Chuck Rushing and her daughter Dianne Rushing White, 4 Grandkids and 5 Great Grandkids.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations to your favorite charity.

“ I'm sorry to see Mrs. Corlia has passed away. My dad passed away the day prior. She & I used to work together at Sears & shared many laughs together. She loved her family & spoke of them quite often. I remember when her husband passed how saddened she was. She was a great lady. Prayers for the family.
