“ Aunt Corrine was a wonderful person--kind, caring, and always cheerful. I loved to hear her laugh--she was fun to be with. My Mama and she are having a GOOD TIME TALKING right about now! The Cotton sisters could COOK AND TALK! Aunt Corrine raised a beautiful family--what a tribute to her! You are all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I have started this message twice and I really do not know where to begin. My heart is saddened but yet I know Mrs. Corrine would not want that. Her strength and faith in God was a great testimony to the world. When I would go to her house as a child I always felt at home. She never seemed to miss an opportunity to talk about her Lord. She would always tell me that she was redy to meet her Jesus. What a great testimony. We all, her friends, church family and most of all her family will certainly miss her but I know that the angels in heaven are rejoicing today. Our love and prayers are with her family.

“ To the family of a true angel: our hearts are heavy with grief and are sincerely sorry to learn of Mrs. Scott's passing. In time, I know your fondest memories that you are left to cherish will somehow get you through this troubling time. Mrs. Scott was a true Christian, Mother and Lady, one that will be truly missed.. She was missed the moment she left this earth.
