

Mr. Curtis Edwards

May 1, 1956 - November 27, 2023

The Life and Legacy of Curtis Edwards.

Curtis was born to the late Ellis Hall and Rosa Lee Edwards on May 1st, 1956 in Brooklyn, NY. He was the oldest son of 9 siblings. Rachel Kirk (deceased), Patricia Edwards, Yvonne Edwards, Kenneth Edwards, Ronnie Edwards (deceased), Darren Edwards, Regina Edwards, and LaVerne O'Reilly. Curtis joined the church at an early age.

On June 28th, 1989 Curtis Edwards and Karousa Roberts were joined in matrimony, in Albany, GA. To this union were Miranda Edwards, Cheresse Edward, Tatiana Edwards, and A'ngelique Edwards.

Curtis joined the United States Marine Corps in September 1974 until August 1996. During his time in the Marine Corps he received numerous awards for conduct, commendable service, marksmanship, and meritorious promotions. He traveled around the world more than once and lived in multiple places. He retired at the rank of Master Sergeant (MSGT E-8). He truly enjoyed his career.

After retirement, he settled in Albany, GA. He loved his community and participated in showing his love by volunteering his time to Keep Albany Beautiful. In 2017 he received an award for his dedication to his community. He was also involved with helping the youth in church, as well as supporting young men to keep them in school and focused on a positive future with a partner in NC.

On November 27th, 2023 while surrounded by family the Lord called him home. Curtis is survived by his devoted wife Karousa, and daughters, Miranda of Arizona, Cheresse of CA, Tatiana of CA, and A'ngelique of GA. He is survived by 7 Grandchildren, 2 Great grandchildren, and a host of nieces and nephews.
