“ To the Christiansen Family:I am so sorry to hear of your loss. At this time of sadness it seems that words may not comfort the bereaving ones. Yet our heavenly Father knows of your tribulation and desires those who are mourning to come to him in prayer for comfort. (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) May each of you know that our Creator desires the best for us. That is why his son was given to relieve us from the pangs of sin and death. (Isaiah 25:8) Then we all can have the hope of the resurrection when all who are in the grave will hear his voice and come out. (John 5:28,29)

“ To all the family, I share my sympathy during this time of sorrow. Always remember the scripture thought at 2 Corinthians 1:3,4Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, The Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation.

“ Ms. Christiansen had one of the sweetest spirits. She was such an incredible lady who was always concerned about others, she was quick with a laugh and so much fun to cut up with. Her strength was incredible. Even into her 70s I would "help" her haul feed out to her cows. As a child I remember tagging along to help her with her chores and playing all sorts of board games with her. And every time, just when I thought I had in her checkers, she would prove once again, that I had more to learn. Her good nature, strength and sharp wit is what I will always remember. She will surely be missed but heaven will be blessed to have her.

“ It was always a pleasure to come home from a ruff day at work and see Miss Daisey sitting outside on her front porch. She was always a very kind person to me. She will be missed, but never forgotten. With sympathy and prayer. Lori Davis

“ JW, Faye and Michelle, so sorry to hear of Mrs Daisy's passing. I know she will be missed by all who knew her and loved her. I think I can speak for my grandmother Marian, that Daisy was a good friend, a great checker player, and good company during their afternoon walks, and she will miss her too. Our prayers and thoughts are with you all during this most difficult time. Cathy & Amy Owen
