“ *Dear Darie,
I envy your your new life. You are are walking with the Lord. You are in heaven. I know you are so happy. Someday I will get to see you. Until then, just know that Mark has us with him. Mark, Take it one day at a time. Grieve as long as it takes. Your friends and family will be here for you. She was a beautiful lady. Sharon*

“Darie must have been a very special person, just going by the way you spoke of her Mark. She had courage and determination and your devotion to her. My whole heart goes out to you and your family, may she rest in peace and may you find peace and solace, in the knowledge, that you have so many people from different parts of the world praying for you and sending their love to you. Healing thoughts and prayers to you Mark because you are also a very special person. With love from the UK.”

“*Sending all my love and sincere sympathies. I hope you find comfort in knowing so many people care for you.
Mark, think on this -
Even on your darkest days there is an angel by your side to guide you along the way. Her name is Darie.*”

You are always in my thoughts & prayers dear friend xx

“Never had the pleasure of meeting Darie in person. However, through our like interests, Mark and I developed an online friendship and I have been aware of the challenges he and Darie have faced over the past year.”

My deepest heartfelt sympathies to Mark, the family and all who knew Darie for their loss. May she Rest in Peace with God and may Mark and others take comfort and draw strength from the knowledge that her ordeal is over and Heaven rejoices that one of their daughters is home.
