“ I was truly saddened to hear about the passing of my friend David. I called on him for a number of years when I first got into the lumber business. I used to get up at 3:00 AM every other Wednesday morning and drive down to Albany to meet David at 6:30 at the shop and have a biscuit together. He was and always will be my favorite person that I ever called on. I last spoke to him about 2 years ago, and weirdly had been thinking of calling him several times over the last month. I will carry some of the things he taught me about the lumber business for the rest of my career. I would love to see and talk to him one more time. He is with Spencer now, and I hope he is well and happy. All the best to the family. Philip, I hope you are well too.
