

Mr. David Wayne "Jack" Jackson

August 20, 1958 - November 30, 2014

David Wayne "Jack" Jackson, 56, died Sunday morning, November 30, happy to be at his home after an extended illness.

A memorial service will be Thursday 3:00 PM at Jack's residence, and a visitation Wednesday from 4:00 PM to 7:00 PM also at the residence.

He was born in McAllen, Texas, August 20, 1958, of the late Mary Jackson Fowler and Darrell Jackson of Elgin, SC. Mr. Jackson is a 1976 graduate of Dougherty High School and attended Albany Junior College where he served as president of the Student Government Association. He received, but declined for hardship an appointment to the U. S. Air Force Academy and attended the University of Georgia. His life's work was contracting and construction and he was giving and supportive to anyone he could help with his skills. His joy was in his family relationships, especially with his children, grandchildren and the family dogs, Neo and Cocoa. At times during his life, he had a passion for motocross, ultralight flying, hunting, and fishing and was a Southwest Georgia champion barefoot water-skier.

He is survived by his loving wife, Lorrie Nance Jackson of Leesburg; two sisters, Leslie Jackson Amerson of Cumming, Ga, and Kim Jackson Harter (Richard) of Albany; two brothers, Cliff Jackson (Debbie) of Statham, Ga, and James Fowler (Lynn) of Leesburg. Mr. Jackson has five children, Heather Jackson, Joshua Jackson (Kate); Shea Nance Dale (Matt), Tasia Nance and Mindi Nance. Grandchildren are Rylea Jackson, Calan Jackson, Zael Carter, Valiah Carter, Gatlin Nance and Malena Nance. He has ten nieces and nephews, ten great nieces and nephews, and uncles and aunts.

The family requests memorials be sent to the Colony Bank on Ledo Rd. in David's name.

“ Jack was one of the stubbornest people I ever had the pleasure to work with, and I know his family knows exactly what I'm talking about. I counted him as a friend and have some vivid memories that make me smile. Rest in Peace Jack.
