“ I am so sad at the loss of David. He was and is loved by so many. I remember all the fun we had growing up out there and will always remember him and love him. Just seems like yesterday that I saw him and it has been 8 months. May God wrap His loving and comforting arms around all of you now and give you the peace you (we)so so desperately need. I love all of you and am praying for you.

“ I am shocked and deeply saddened to hear that David has moved on from this place. I went to high school with David and Thomas, and I loved them both dearly. I have not seen David in years, but I fondly remember his smiling face and beautiful eyes. I pray your family finds peace and comfort.
