

Mrs. Debbie Duke Davis Obituary

April 9, 1959 - July 26, 2013

Debbie Dora Duke Davis, 54, passed away peacefully at Phoebe North Hospital on Friday morning, July 26, 2013.

She was predeceased by her daughter Sarah Phyllis Davis, and her parents Aaron L. Duke and Phyllis B. Duke of Albany.

She is survived by her husband of 25 years, Jimmy Lloyd Davis, and her son, Andrew Lloyd Davis, both of Albany, Danyaelle of Albany whom she loved like a daughter, her sister, Julie A. Duke of Albany, brother, Donald G. Duke (Julia) of Griffin, GA, sister Shirley Duke Stickler (John), Barnesville, GA, brother Benjamin L. Duke (Nettie) of Hampton, GA., three nieces, two nephews, and nine great nieces and nephews.

Debbie was a member of St. Patrick's Episcopal Church where she served on the vestry and was active until her health deteriorated. She was instrumental in initiating community services on behalf of St. Patrick's such as Vacation Bible School, Thanksgiving and Christmas giving to local needy families, a fall yard sale fundraiser, Christmas service for children and other activities which St. Patrick's continues today.

First and foremost, she was a loving wife, mother, homemaker and sister.

“ Jimmy & Andy:

My heart is so heavy today at our lost. Let there be peace in knowing that she loved you both unconditionally! Jimmy she always said, "they'll never be another one like you", and Andy, "you were her star in the night". We may not have always seen eye to eye, but we always agreed that family meant everything to us. May you always hold her memories dear to your heart, and know that her suffering is over. I'm here if you need anything or If I can help you in any way. Love You “ Words cannot express how sad I am today, but I feel better knowing that you are in good hands. You were always such a huge part of my life! I hope they have a Super Nintendo in heaven bc when I get there it is on like Donkey Kong woman! I love you and miss you so much already. I'm lighting you a candle w/a purple background bc I know that is your favorite color. Til we meet again...
