“ Buck, Angie, Mama and Family, we are praying for each one of you and your families and just remember, Debbie has no more COPD, no more struggles in her health, she is free of all that. Today we send her a beautiful smile like the one she has in the picture on this obituary. Beautiful young lady taken too young in our hearts but God has a place for her and reason which we will find out about when we see her again. Love and prayers to all of you. The Wilber and Charlotte Lindsey family.
