“ Mrs. Pope was a lady who loved her family. Every time, I do mean every time, I went to her house she would update me on the family. She loved her dogs too. I can't say I never knew someone so humble as she was other than her love, Mr. Doug. It was a honor to have known both of them. I am also honored to be a pallbearer for each one of them. I will always keep the memories of my friendship with them. Bless the family and let them know their parents put love on many people in this world. I will miss them.

“ Delores and her late husband Douglas, always brought out the best in others. Being able to share and empathize with others was so natural for them. We feel blessed to have had them in our lives. They were always so proud and supportive of their sons. Ron's grandmother (Douglas' mother) treated Delores like a daughter.
