

Deloris L. Stalvey Obituary

June 14, 1945 - March 9, 2004

Though our hearts are breaking, heaven is rejoicing as Deloris Lowery Stalvey meets our Heavenly Father face to face. No more suffering, no more pain, as that is now replaced by joy everlasting, Deloris passed from this life just as she lived it, blessing those that came to be by her side. Not one precious breath wasted on complaint, not a second of the gift of time that we all share, on regret. If one word could sum the expanse of one's life, her word would be commitment. She was committed to her family, her friends and to her trust in Jesus Christ to do His will in her life. A lifelong resident of Albany, Deloris graduated from Albany High School in 1963. She served in church ministry activities most of her adult life. She was part of the ministry team of New Covenant Church before she became ill. Deloris had a deep and genuine love for people, her church - New Covenant and found great pleasure interacting and working with all people. She leaves a legacy of courage as she valiantly battled breast cancer for over 7 years. Her loving spirit will be sorely missed on earth.

“ I just received word from an AHS 1963 class member that Deloris had passed away. My sincere condolences to her family. I remember fondly the times that, as a child, I visited in the Lowery home for the express purpose of playing with a lovely, kind little girl, Deloris. May God bless you all as you seek His peace, comfort and reassurance.

“ Rev. and Mrs. Warren Stewart were neighbors of Mr. Santore in the early to mid 1970's. We lived between Mr. Santore and the Cartwrights. My father was associate pastor for Asbury United Methodist Church.

My brother, Mark, and I were playmates of Gabby and Johnathan. We often talk about the fun whiffleball games with Johnathan, Gabby, Joey, Anthony, Richard and the rest of the gang in the neighborhood.

We were saddened to hear of Mr. Santore's passing. We would like to express to Frank, Jr., Gabby and Johnathan that our thoughts and prayers are with them.

“ Dear Richard, Larry, Gary and family,
I would like to let you know how sad I was to hear of Deloris's death. She was a Godly woman who spent many hours listening to her friends, entertaining their families, and praying for them. I remember how she showed interest in my kids as well as all the others who swam in your pool each summer, even when they ran through your house dripping wet. She is the one who taught me that kids should have two cookies, one for each hand. Who knows how many hours she spent preparing meals and entertaining people. I know that our Father welcomed her as she welcomed us. I heard that she passed away about 2:00 am on March 9th. It is interesting that we were told that Mara died at about 2:00 am on March 9th, 1997. It will be a joyous time when we all see each other again in His house. God bless you all.

Love,
Sheila
