“ So sorry to lose this beautiful lady. She helped man the polls during elections, and helped so much. My best to her wonderful family, who I had the pleasure of meeting recently.

“ Brenda, Ronnie & Family, I am so sorry for the loss of your mother.
Having just lost my own mother, I know what you are going though at this time. The time ahead is not easy, but there is relief in knowing she is no longer suffering and is at peace. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Sincerely, Jay

“ To The Walden Family

We are so sorry that Dena is no longer with us. We know she was a special lady in your lives, as well as in our lives.

We can't say that the pain will really ever go away, but be assured that time will lessen the pain of your loss and you will realize wonderful memories that will remain with you forever. It gets better, just take one step at a time.

Please remember that "Death is not putting out the light, it is extinguishing the candles because the dawn has come." Also, Christ is there for you and you will find endless wells of strength and grace.

We can't know why sad things happen?. We can only know that nothing beautiful in this world is ever really lost? Because all precious things live on in memory....

We believe in the power of prayer and in the comfort of friendship. Right now, we offer you both.

THINKING OF YOU WITH AFFECTION AT THIS DIFFICULT TIME

In Peace,

The Coney's (Dora, Dena's dear friend & neighbor) & and Family

“ I first met Dena when we were students at Griggs Elementary School in Miller County many years ago. She was a very sweet and lovable young girl back then.

Many years later I married her first cousin. We became re-acquainted and I found Dena to be the same sweet lovable person as an adult, as well as, being kind, gentle and always smiling.

Bill and I were able to visit her in June of this year. She, Diane, Bill and I visited Dena's favorite restaurant in Albany. We shall always remember our last goodbye with our dear cousin. She was very special to us and we will miss her.

“ Nana Walden, I am going to miss writing letters with you, you were my pen pal. I am really going to miss you, but I am so glad you are not hurting any more. I hope you are having a good time in Heaven, I bet its really pretty. Would you tell my Granddaddy Pope I said hello & I love him too. I hope you tell Jesus & everyone there your jokes, you always had a funny one to tell us. When you got to the gates of heaven, when they asked what Jesus' name was, did you say ANDY? You were so funny when you told that forest gump joke. Me & michael are going to miss you alot. We will always remember seeing Jesus in you & your life. I know Heaven was worth waiting for. Are the streets really gold & gates pearly?? I know you are going to be watching over me & my momma, daddy & Michael. My momma & me will take care of Nanny,Aunt Brenda & Uncle Randy. Don't worry they'll be ok. My momma really wants you to know how much she loves you, even though sometimes she didn't show it. Well I hope you are having a good time, I bet your mansion is huge & beautiful & that crown is too. Keep praying for all of us here & be waiting for us and we will see you again one day.I love you,Love your Great Grand Daughter, Kayla Forbes

“ Grandma, Even though I may not have shown it very well and rarely said it, I love you so very much. You were and still are an important part of my life. I will always remeber picking peas with you in your feild and then taking them in only to have to shell them too! You never gave up on any of us, no matter what mistakes we made and after all you went through, you kept your faith in God. We will miss you so much but I know we will see you again soon. Meagan, Morgan and Josh want you to know that they love you and Morgan asked if you would tell her godmother Debrah (who is there in heaven with you) hello. We love you , your granddaughter, Barbie
