“ I know it is almost 4 years later, but I only just found this. My name is Jeannie Barber, his daughter. I know as children we don't always realize that no matter what has happened, the grief that we will feel at the loss of a parent is overwhelming. Dad, I love you, and I remember up until you got sick, the numerous phone calls. I will miss your laugh. I love that we got to talk on the phone so much there towards the end. I had no idea how much your health was deteriorating. I wish someone had told me. I will never forget that phone call and how much my heart hurts for so many reasons. I love you, Dad. I hope you have found peace

“ I was praying that you would returned back to Lee SP but we knew the devil is always busy. Missed your smiling face which would break out singing a gospel songs and our talks about how life can be hard but we make the best of it with what we have. Saw you several times after that but the last time was at the gas station you was heading to visit the grand kids. I ask you are you sure you will be able to make it because he was limping bad on one of his legs but he gave me that big grin and said yes Ms. Della I be fine. I said alright then be safe and take your time he smile and said yes ma'am. Dennis had a big heart and always when I ask him to do something for me it always okay yes Ms. Della anything for you. Dennis was a sweet and wonderful person! Praying for his family for the lost of this sweet loving man may he rest in peace. Ms. Della
