“ I am so sorry for your loss. Over the years, Don made many of my antique stuffed chairs beautiful again. He was so very nice and went out of the way to be helpful. I liked him and his dedication to his craft, which he told me he regretted was rapidly becoming a lost art. And that's what Don was....a craftsman and artist. He will be missed by me, and I'm sure many other customers whose lives he touched..

“ I have so many memories of my dad one of my earliest is the fact that he never referred to any of us as step children. thru the years when people would say is this your daughter? She looks just like you he would politely say thank you. He was a hard working man and always put his family first..I remember growing up having dinner every night at the dinner table and although dad was strict and expected us to use all the good manners we had been taught..If you turned your back long enough you would find a chicken bone sticking out of your glass of sweet tea and dad with a grin on his face!! If we cried it's not fair! He would reply well it aint no circus either! Dad also taught me creative parenting like when we got older and woke up on Christmas morning to find pecan limbs sticking out of our stockings because we had been bad...although we lived on a very tight budget I remember family vacations and going to the fair things I'm sure he couldn't afford but somehow made it happenwe never got everything we wanted but we always had everything we needed and could not have had a better dad

“ I will forever remember and celebrate what a wonderful man Uncle Don was.

*When I must leave you for a little while-
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years.
But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same.
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways,
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die
For I am waiting for you in the sky!*

“ I have many great memories of my Brother. I used to get soo excited when they traveled back to Indiana to visit. We'd all go together to visit our other brothers and sisters. Our first stop was always Kathleen's house. He was always hunting and fishing and bringing things back to clean and cook up. I had so much fun with his girls. When we'd get back home he always wanted mom to make him some fried apples and homeade biscuits. These are memories I will treasure forever. I miss you brother so very much.
