

Dora Carter Brooks Obituary

October 17, 1910 - April 24, 2004

Mrs. Brooks worked for Southern Bell Telephone Company as a telephone operator in the 1930's. When World War II broke out, she returned to duty as a telephone operator at the request of the phone company which desperately needed operators at that time. After the war, she devoted all her time and efforts to her home and family. She was a wonderful cook and also enjoyed gardening with her husband, Dan. She was a long time member of First United Methodist Church of Albany and a member of the Elnora Hawk Sunday School Class and a missionary circle.

“ We were fortunate to have lived next door to Mr. and Mrs. Brooks for 15 years. They were perfect neighbors and a joy to know. Our children, Stephanie and Julie, were born while we lived beside the couple, and they grew up knowing and loving Mr. and Mrs. Brooks. I will always remember the beautiful flowers and delicious vegetables next door. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks were always happy to share whatever they had with us. We enjoyed conversing over the fence as well as visiting in each other's yards. When Mrs. Brooks got older and didn't get out as much, I remember sitting with her in her kitchen and talking. She was such a delight. My family is so blessed to have know Mrs. Brooks. She was a wonderful lady, and she will be missed by many. Billy and Rhonda J. Pate, Stephanie and Julie Pate, Albany, GA
