

Dorothy Christine Cochran Obituary

July 13, 1919 - January 29, 2011

LEESBURG - Dot Cochran, 91, of 167 Westfield Road, Leesburg, GA died Saturday January 29, 2011 at her residence. Joseph Edward Cochran, her husband of fifty-seven years; her parents, George Willard and Effie Sherman Overby of Stewart County, Lumpkin, Georgia; five brothers; and two great-granddaughters preceded her in death. She is survived by two daughters, Patricia C. Mehlberg of Lawrenceville, Georgia, and Janice A. White of Troy, Alabama; a stepdaughter, Betty Jane Cochran of Crescent City, California; one granddaughter; four grandsons; seven great-grandchildren; one great-great-granddaughter; one sister; one brother; and numerous nieces and nephews. Mrs. Cochran attended Stewart County High School, Albany Vocational School, and Morton Business School of Albany. She has resided in the Albany area for over seventy years, and retired in 1978 from Sears Roebuck after thirty years of service, finishing as coordinator for twenty-seven Catalog and Merchant stores. She was a member of Palmyra Road UMC for over sixty years, serving as church secretary for eleven years. She was active in Wesley Sunday School Class, UIMW Circle II, AARP and Phoebe Putney Golden Key Club. She was also a charter member of Credit Professionals International and Sears Best retirees club.

Tribute Wall

“ Dorothy Christine Cochran Obituary

May 22, 2023 at 01:29 AM

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you in the loss of Dot. She was a very special lady. May God given you strength in days to come in your loss. May God Bless, love Delores and Terry Foreman

Delores and Terry Foreman - February 02, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Our deepest symphthies to all of you at this time. We remember well when Dot so faithfully prepared the bulletins. For many years you could look out and see her occupying that special pew and she always had a smile and a word. May God give you peace and comfort.Love, Linda and Robert

Linda and Robert Wells - January 31, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Janice & family, you all are in our thoughts and prayers. May God Bless you all at this time of sorrow. Love you! Linda & Ricky

Linda Bishop - January 30, 2011 at 12:00 AM