“ I have such vivid memories of Dorothy Walton attending meetings of Xavier Chapter, DAR. She was a delightful lady and a wonderful addition to our membership. Those who were privileged to know her have fond recollections of her years in Rome and send heartfelt condolences.

“ This morning at a First Baptist Church ladies' Sunday School class coffee, I learned from Natalie Reynolds of the death of Dorothy Walton, a former neighbor of hers. Through six years of living in Rome, GA, and many years of visiting here, I had gotten to know Mr. and Mrs. Stokes Walton. My husband, W.C. Ruchti, was pastor of Fifth Avenue Baptist Church in Rome, GA. Then we went to Rome, Italy, where he was pastor of the international Rome Baptist Church. In 1985 we returned to Rome, GA, and he was associate minister at First Baptist. My husband died in 2000, and I remain in Rome, GA. There are still some of us who remember the lovely, gracious Dorothy Walton. My sympathy on the death of your dear mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother.

Sincerely,

Helen Ruchti
