

Dorothy S. Holly Obituary

May 9, 1923 - December 18, 2009

She was born in Shawano, Wisconsin, and had lived in Albany for over 60 years. Mrs. Holly was a founding member of the Lutheran Church of Our Saviour. She retired from the Dougherty County School System and was the lunchroom manager at Dougherty Middle School. She was preceded in death by her husband Clyde Holly. Survivors include her 2 daughters: Merry Feagins and her husband Joe, Overland Park, KA, Rachel Jackson and her husband David, Albany; her son: Parker Holly and his wife Robin, Milner, GA; 4 grandchildren; 4 great-grandchildren.

Tribute Wall

“ Dorothy S. Holly Obituary

May 22, 2023 at 01:29 AM

“ Dorothy S. Holly Obituary

May 22, 2023 at 01:29 AM

“ Just wanted to epress my sympathy for your loss. Dot was a close friend of my Grandmother (Cleone Sweat). They enjoyed many years of coffee and conversation. When my Grandmother became ill, Dot was right there until the end. She was a great person and a devoted friend. Anne Baker

Anne Baker - December 22, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ As the hair dresser at Morningside I had the pleasure of knowing Ms Holly. She was such a beautiful and sweet person and I will truly miss her.

Lisa Nolan - December 20, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Family, You all are in my thoughts and prayers. I will always remember your mom and dad from Our Savior. What great ministers of the Lord's work they both were. They will be missed.

Dottie Sandison Bridges - December 20, 2009 at 12:00 AM