“ I love you so much Meme, you never judged me, just loved me and accepted everything about me.

You were so beautiful, so young, everyone thought you were so much younger than you were and that always made you feel so good.

I remember how you came about having your hair dyed red. You went to Walmart one day to pick up your normal hair dye and when you came over so I could dye it I said, Meme I think you bought the wrong color.. this is Auburn red! You said oh no! I thought it was my normal Brown! We laughed, and I said I bet it would look really good on you and you decided to give it a shot, and you loved it!

Everybody at church complimented you on your hair color, it made you look and feel so young, and ever since then you always bought that same color.

You will forever be remembered and missed dearly. I have soooooo many memories to last me the rest of my life.

“ Sister Bailey...devoted to God's Sanctuary in WestView Church. She was convinced that God desired her presence and dedication. Sister Dorothy had a unique way of acquiring everyone and uniting them into her circle of friends. She observed the best quality of each individual and explored the bits that made one special in that close relationship with everyone. Sister Dorothy brought a ray of peace and joy to the worshippers and set a standard of attendance. No could prepare for Eternal Life any more completely!. Your rewards will be enormous. There is a huge empty space in your pew, Keep your spirit coming in our memories. A great gift to our walk with God. Grady Morey, pastor
