“ I ran across this on the internet recently and wanted to try to contact the family. My family moved from Kentucky to Georgia around the same time as the McConnell family and we visited with them often. They were like family to us in our new home. Dorothy was always warm and friendly. She would do anything to help. I remember her smile and her laugh most of all. My condolences to the family. If Mac or Cathy sees my message, please know that I am thinking of you all.

“ When I moved to Albany in 1978, I lived down the street from the McConnell family. Cathy was one of my first friends in Albany and to this day she is one of my dearest friends. Cathy's Mama always had great snacks for us growing up after school or when spending the night at the McConnell house. One time Cathy and I went to New Orleans while we were attending Albany Junior College. Mrs. McConnell sent us off on our journey with Little Debbie brownies which were most appreciated as we had such a long drive to get there and back!

What I remember most about Mrs. McConnell is that she was a happy and positive person to be around. She had a genuine laugh and loved sharing life's moments. She was a devoted wife and mother. Her family meant everything to her. I always remember her having a lot of energy and her home was always immaculate! I love the McConnell family and am praying for them at this time. I fell blessed to have known Mrs. McConnell and she definitely did touch my life growing up.

Love you all,

Julie from down the street
