

Edgar S. Mays Obituary

September 30, 1944 - April 23, 2011

Born in Montgomery, Alabama, on September 30th, 1944, Ed was a lifelong native of Albany. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lansing Burrows Mays of Albany and brother to the late Lansing Burrows Mays. Ed attended Gordon Military Institute and served in the 82nd Airborne after graduation. He had a deep love for his family, friends, customers, all animals, and for Stratford Academy football and track. His amazing sense of humor will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him, most especially Sugar and Boss Mays, his beloved bulldogs, who were his constant and most loyal companions. He is survived by his sons, Walter (Jeanie) Mays, Michael (Jesse) Haselton, and Edgar Mays. He is also survived by his sister, Leslie (Cecil) Daniel, and his grandson, John Byron Strauss.
