“ Just to let the family know that we have lost a very precious person. I will miss ET, he was a special friend and mentor. The afternoons just won't be the same without him setting in front of my desk and us discussing the world.
I love you and will miss you ET.

“ All of us at Crisp Power offer our condolences to Laura and family on Edgar's passing. We had a very wonderful relationship with Edgar when he was with Equity and even after he left them he always found time to stop and say hello when he was in Cordele. A very kind & honest gentleman and he will be missed.

“ Edgar was a very good friend and work associate. He was always "up" and was one of the wittiest people I have ever known. Looking back at my association with Edgar I would characterize him by saying "he did it his way." I will miss him and his wit.
