“ Rest in Peace Aunt Edna! She is the aunt I really remember from my youth ... the one who was my "2nd mother" ... who I'm sure I drove crazy as much as she and Uncle Lonnie got after me! .... yet the one I sure did love!

All those times coming to Albany for the weekend visit where Mike and I, and maybe with Steve or Mitch if they were there, would hang out in the tree house, goof off with the piano and drums, jump on the trampoline, catch those giant crickets, walk down to the store for a coke and candy, and a million other things that filled the summer days ... and always looking forward to whatever Aunt Edna was cooking up in the kitchen.

All those Bass family reunions in the heat of summer .... ahhh what memories! Rest in Peace Aunt Edna ... you'll for sure always be in mine!

*With Love and Condolences,
Ken Matson & Family*
