“ I didn't know Mr. Copelan but clearly we are related as my parents are also from Greensboro. My dad was Norris Copelan (Leo, his dad). Not only are we probably blood related but are also both graduates of The Citadel. Sad that I didn't make the opportunity to meet him. Robert '81

“ I was out of town for around 10 days and did not learn about this until the middle of this week. Mr. Copelan was such a loyal committed person, especially at Porterfield. He was always friendly. I remember years ago when our families always sat within a pew of two of each other and how we would chat some prior to the service and the seed was planted then with me as a younger boy the impressions I still have today of Mr. Copelan. My thoughts are with you all.

“ Mr. Copelan was a prince of a gentleman. Some of the fondest memories of my childhood were spent at the Copelan's house on Robin Hood. Albany has lost one of its brightest stars and Heaven has gained one. Godspeed Mr. Ed.
