“ Among the highlights and fond memories of my ministry at Lutheran Church of Our Saviour are the many visits that Elaine and I shared at her apartment - - - she always pointed out her "watchdog" complete with chain leash and food pan - - - she was such a gracious hostess and always appreciated our visits - - - I remember her and our conversations with much fondness - - - - God bless her family and her memory among those of us who knew her and loved her - - - Pastor Charles Thompson
