

Elizabeth G. Boyd Obituary

July 24, 1921 - October 15, 2010

She was an accomplished genealogist and member of several genealogical societies, including The National Society of Magna Charter Dames, Colonial Daves XVII Century, and Order of the Crown, Order of Charlemagne, First Families of South Carolina and a former member of Daughters of the American Revolution. She was also a member of Grace Episcopal Church and a former member of the Monroe Garden Club. Married in 1941 she was preceded in death in 1968 by her husband, Capt. James A. Boyd, USN Ret. She leaves a loving family of her son, James W. Boyd and his children, Justin and Meredith, all of St. Louis, MO; daughter, Kathlyn Boyd Chandler and her spouse, Dr. Creighton Chandler and their four children: Dawn E. Gumm of McKinney, TX, Creighton Chandler III of Austin, TX, Graydon Boyd Chandler of Monroe and Curran M. Chandler of Amherst, MA. Great grandchildren are: Sydney Callender, David Gumm, Anna Margaret Chandler and Graydon Boyd Chandler, Jr. The family wishes to express loving gratitude to the staff at Rosemont Assisted Living in West Monroe; especially to the Rose Garden aides, to Director, Karen Traxler and the Administrative and Activities staff members. We could not have asked for more in the giving of compassionate care. We appreciate the outstanding care of Patient's Choice Hospice with very special thanks to the nurses for their dedication, kindness and quick-response to each need.
