“ How fortunate for heaven that Betty is up there now. She was such a joy and a blessing to us every time we were with her, and, of course, RoseMary, John and Bud. No matter what we were discussing Betty could get right to the heart of the matter with a most humorous, and matter-of-fact way of summing up the situation. We truly will miss her and hope you all remember the great moments she shared with you. God has certainly welcomed her home.
