“ Oh, how I loved Elizabeth. She was dear to me. I have precious memories of the days we worked together in the First Baptist Church office back in the 1970s along with Mary Herndon and many other special friends. She and Maxwell have remained dear friends to me, and to Lloyd while he was still here in this old world. She blessed the lives of many, many people. May our Lord bless and keep all of her dear family in these days following Elizabeth's home-going.
