“ I just wanted to give you my condolences for the lost of your loved one. We have all lost a loved one in death and during this trivial time it can be very hard to endure. One way that I was able to find comfort was through God's word the Bible. God makes a promise to us that at Revelation 21:4 no more pain, sickness, or death will be anymore. God is not a lie so we know that his promise will come true for all. If you have anymore questions please go to www.watchtower.org for more information.

“ My Mother was a sweet loving lady... She always saw the glass half full and she always had a smile on her face.. I will miss her terribly. The kind of women my Mother was is a dying breed. She was elegant, kind and loved the Lord Jesus Christ with all her heart and wanted everyone she met to know him.. She was never ashamed to share Christ. I know when she feel asleep and woke up that the first thing she saw was her Savior..she smiled and her eyes twinkled as they often did ... Welcome home my good a faithful servant...
Welcome Home!! I love you MOM

“ Dear Lynn and all the Loosier family,

I am so sorry to hear about the sudden loss of Libbo! I don't know many women that are as fine a lady and classy like she was. I had such a good time sitting beside her at Lynn's Sat. night concert up in Highlands back in June. She is going to be missed by many. My thoughts and prayers are with you during this sad time.

“ What a beautiful lady! Daddy and I were weeping as we remembered so many experiences. How many times did she lead us through "Seven Last Words?" ...and how many times did she tell us "this is my LAST year!"

She wanted all of us to go to Shorter. I don't think she was ambivalent about ANYTHING!

She certainly was proud of all her kids- -and she still had encouragement for the rest of us. We will all miss her, but know she's enjoying a sweet reunion with Jesus, Speck and so many friends.

Know that we are praying for you all- -saying "goodbye" is never easy.

“ To all of Libbo's children, grandchildren and great grandchildren, I extend my very deepest sympathies. I know that all of you will miss her deeply. Libbo was a friend to me as she was to so many. She made a real difference in my life on such a personal level by just being so compassionate, insightful and funny too!! We worked together on dramas at FBC too. What a remarkable lady!! I pray that you all take comfort in knowing what joy she is experiencing today: 1 Corinthians 2:9 - "No eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind has conceived what God has prepared for those who love him".

“ I have many fond memories of Mrs. Libbo, mostly involving coercion of some sort. Coercing me into several of the dramas at Albany's First Baptist Church and trying very hard to get both of my daughters to attend Shorter College. Mrs. Libbo was always a joy to be around, even through life's struggles. We will miss seeing her in the near future. We will see her again one day.

“ Although we did not know Mrs. Loosier well, as fellow-members of First Baptist Albany, we were blessed by her love of people, FBC Albany, and her friendliness. She was a blessing to both of us. We pray that the God of Comfort (2 Cor 1:2-3) will be real to the entire family at this time.

“ Mike, Eddie, Lee, Grant and Lynn -

I wanted you to know that you are in my thoughts.

I was so very sad to hear about your wonderful Mother, but I had to smile when I heard that she was all dressed up, on the dance floor, in a party mood and surrounded by the people that loved her when her time arrived. How blessed.

I have many fond memories of growing up in your home under her watchful eye. One thing I could always expect when I came your house was that she was going to have a big smile on her face and that all of us would have fun. She made me feel special, as if I was part of the family.

I visited with her during one of my last trips to Albany. We sat on the couch in the living room for about 2 hours and swapped a lot of stories. I realized then that she knew a lot more about some of our adventures than I was aware at the time. Looking back, I don't think we really got away with too much. While I was there we laughed a lot and had a great time re-living some of those days from childhood. She was a gracious and grand lady and I am most fortunate to have had the benefit of her influence during our formative years.

Take care of each other during the next few days and especially the time that follows. You are all blessed to have a large and loving family. While you may need to work a little harder to replace the connection that she provided for you, I suspect you will find a way.

My thoughts are with you all.

“ *Mike, Lee, Eddie, Grant, Lynn and families:
I know you are sad in the loss of your Mother. As far as earthly thoughts, ya'll are orphans now. But, your heavenly Father will never abandon you or forsake you. Even now, you can lean on him for he alone can give you strength in these times. I have lost a parent and have just recently lost my wife. But, "the gift of GOD is eternal life" and you will see her (MOM) (again) soon. For a Christian there is no such thing as death...only a graduation to life hereafter on the other side. Psalms 124:8 Our help is in the name of the LORD who made heaven and earth. Bless you all!*

“ To Libbo's family,
We are SO sorry for your loss. We loved Libbo SO much! We attended First Baptist of Albany with her for many years. We participated in and helped with several of her productions. She and Spec always brought something special with their presence. Please know that we are praying for all during this time of sadness.

“ It was a pleasure to have known Libbo. She was certainly a great conversationalist and I always enjoyed her "stop overs" to my home as she traveled through Atlanta...I still can hear her giggle and see her shake her head and wave her hand at me in an effort to move along our chats. She was a lot of fun to joke around with. My thoughts and prayers are with her family.

“ *Hello to a Dear Family,
Libbo was the most perfect Georgia Lady I have ever known. We at First Baptist, Highlands loved her so much. She was a full sunshine!!. She enjoyed visit with her daughter and great grandson this summer and we enjoyed setting with him. She bought us goodies from Kilwins and signed his name. Last week she went with church group to see the movie "Secrets of Jonathan Sperry". She rode with us. We went to Wal-Mart and stopped for ice cream. She had a great fun. God helps us remember the good times and they will see you through your grief. All of you are in our prayers. Please visit First Baptist when in Highlands Fondly "Pops" & Ruby*

“Mrs. Loosier was a wonderful Christian lady. A true Southern Lady she was. I loved her so much. She was so special to my daughter, Mandy at First Baptist. My heart goes out to the family. I had wonderful times with Mrs. Loosier at First Baptist; but my first meeting of Mrs. Loosier was at Phoebe Putney while she volunteered as a Pink Lady. I was working at Phoebe and she had a smile for everyone. She is at peace with the Lord, you can rest assure.

“Mrs. Loosier was such an important part of our christian walk. There are so many things that Mrs. Loosier did and did them with all that she was. But her greatest gift was that she always showed the love of Christ to everyone and always was a witness for our Lord. I remember the time we did the Christmas Drama at the Municipal Auditorium in Albany and she asked me and Teresa if Will could be used as baby Jesus and we said yes and she was so protected of him through the whole weekend. Even the last time we saw her at church was last Christmas and she wanted to make sure that we were involved in a bible preaching church and active in the music ministry. All I can say is that I can only imagine what heaven will be and I know that she is dancing and praising the Lord and worshipping at his feet. Our prayers are with all of you and we ask God to put his arms around each of you and give you comfort and peace that you will one day see Libbo and she will probably be the first in line to welcome you to the a celebration in Heaven. You will be truly missed in our hearts and we will see you one day in heaven.
