“ My mom, Oleta Carter was best friends with Ella when my mom and Ella were in the second grade. My mother asked to borrow a crayon. They clicked. Miss Ella use to baby sit me when she and Mrs. Yarbrough lived next door to the Albany Library. We loved going to the library. I will never forget the smell of that library. Miss Ella taught me how to sign out a book and we chose Doctor Dolittle. I still love that story. At that time she and Mrs. Yarborough lived in a walk up apartment and she worked at the bakery. She use to bring me decorated gingerbread men. I recently was able to see Ella when she attended my grandmother,s funeral in Albany, Lillie B Wages. It was so nice to see her again and she had not changed a bit. I was at their home quite a bit and I can say that both of them definitely were a very important influence in my life.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Miss Ella on several occasions while helping her trap cats that she would have spayed or neutered. She was such a sweet person and genuinely cared for all creatures. She will be greatly missed.

“ My memory of Miss Ella was when I was a teenager. She and her mom lived upstairs from my parents and I at 217 N Jackson St. She took my girlfriend and Me to the beach but her car broke down and we had to stay in a motel in Marianna, Fla. She and her mom babysit for my daughters when they were younger. I was a neighbor of hers again. I lived upstairs over her at 709 Second Ave. She babysat for my granddaughter, Mackenzie, several times. We would visit with her and I would call her about once a month. Since moving to Marietta this past July; I didn't get to call her. But I did let her know we were moving. She was a lovely christian lady and I loved her very much. God has a special angel!

“ Miss Ella was one of the finest, sweetest people I have ever had the privilege of knowing and working with. I worked at the C & S Bank downtown with her back in the 60's and early 70's. She was a beautiful person inside and out. My thoughts and prayers go out to her family..I know Heaven shone a little brighter as Miss Ella made her way through the gates. Gayle Hughes Vorse
