“ We were out of town and just found about your loss, just wanted you to know that we are praying for you. We come to know the Chestnut family at Sunnyside Baptist Church. I spent many days with Mr. Ellis on the softball field, I treasure those moments & memories and will hold on to them for a long time. Please know that we are praying for all of you, and to let us know if we can do anything for you. Remember those wonderful moments.

All of our love & prayers.
