“ I just wanted to give you my condolences for the lost of your loved one. We have all lost a loved one in death and during this trivial time it can be very hard to endure. One way that I was able to find comfort was through God's word the Bible. God makes a promise to us that at Revelation 21:4 no more pain, sickness, or death will be anymore. God is not a lie so we know that his promise will come true for all. If you have anymore questions please go to www.watchtower.org for more information.

“ *Dear Stella, Danny and Lynda,
I'm so sorry the loss of your father and husband. Pebble was a very nice man. We lost my dad 3 years ago, and it's still difficult. By the time I heard about Mr. Riddle it was to late to go to his service, and I'm sorry about that. MY thoughts and prayers are with you all.
Love, Teresa*

“ *Always remember the good times and bad times we had. You were a life saver when my husband, Perry, died. Remember all the good times when we went to Gatlinburg, and Chatsworth. Remember the times we rode the back mountain roads with a drop off on one side and the mountain on the other. You will be deeply missed. You were a shining "Pebble" among all of the rough rocks. “ *If tears could build a stairway and memories were a lane,
We would walk all the way to Heaven, to bring you home again
No farewell words were spoken, no time to say good-bye
You were gone before we knew it, and only God knows why
Our hearts ache in sadness, and secret tears will flow
What is meant to lose you, no one will ever know.*

Our hearts and prayers go out to you all... It hurts so much to lose someone we love so dear. Only know that the heavens are singing, for they have a new angel, and in time your hearts will too sing & rejoice, for Uncle Pebble had met our lord & saviour.

We love you...
