“ To Amy's Mother, Father and Brother, My son Matt and Amy became the best of friends when she moved to Macon and he has spoken time after time of her sweet spirit and how much she cared for other people, especially the homeless and those down on their luck. The world is a better place because of her love for others and her random acts of kindness. May her light shine forever. May God Bless each one of you and give you peace through this very sad time.
