

Evelyn C. White Obituary

April 21, 1912 - June 8, 2006

Evelyn C. White, 94, went home to be with the Lord, peacefully, on June 8, 2006, at Morningside of Albany of natural causes. She was a 60 year resident of Albany and a member of Gillionville Baptist Church. Mrs. White was born in Forsyth, Ga. on April 21, 1912 and grew up in Haddock, Ga. She graduated from Jones County High School in 1928, and then attended the Georgia State College for Women in Milledgeville (now Middle Georgia College) where she was a member of the Delta Kappa Gamma sorority. She received her B.S. Ed. in 1932 and began teaching English and Latin at Twiggs County High School in Jeffersonville, Ga. There she met Milledge White, the Twiggs County Agricultural Extension Agent who was a fellow boarder at the boarding house. They fell in love and were married on Thursday, June 25, 1936. They settled and began to raise a family with the birth of a son in 1939 and another son in 1941. After World War II, in 1946, the Whites moved to Albany where Evelyn resumed teaching. She taught second grade at Isabella Elementary School then at Palmyra Elementary, finally retiring after the 1967-68 school year. An active member at First Baptist Church for 58 years as a member of the Estherian Sunday School class, she taught Sunday school teacher for 18 years and was a member of the Women's Missionary Union. Evelyn trusted Jesus as her personal savior at an early age. There can be no doubt in anyone's mind who knew her that she knew Him and loved Him since she radiated and shared that love as only one who knows Him could. She was preceded in death by her parents, Charles H. and Minnie Mae Chambliss; her brother, Charles T. Chambliss and her son, Milledge White, Jr. She is survived by her husband of 69 years, Milledge White, Sr. of Albany; her son, Robert H. White of Duluth, Ga.; five grandchildren, Laura A. White of Loganville, Ga., Brannon White and Lindsey Johns both of Albany, Robert A. "Drew" White and Jason W. White both of Duluth, Ga. and six great-grandchildren all of Albany. An excellent woman, who can find? For her worth is far above jewels. Prov. 31:10

“ *To all the family,
Mrs. White was loved by so many persons and will be sorely missed. She led a good life and was a wonderful mother, grandmother and great grandmosther. She leaves behind a legacy of serving her fellow man in so many ways. I'm so glad that I got to see her at Milledge's 100th birthday celebration. I'll be praying for him as he gives up a love of many years.*

“ What a wonderful person Mrs. White was. She was my second grade teacher at Palmyra SOOOO many years ago. I remember her compassion and patience. She was the kind of person you wanted teaching all the children. She was a blessing to all who knew her.
