“ I have nothing but warm and positive memories of my Aunt Faye. She was always kind and loving towards me and extremely hospitable whenever I visited with Mom and Dad. And what a great couple she and my Uncle Harry made! I believe that Aunt Faye's longevity was more then good luck and good genes. She had a boundless energy and fiery enthusiasm coming from inside her that shone like an eternal flame. She carried that with her as the decades progressed - and so lived to a ripe old age. My Aunt Faye: a one of a kind fabulous lady - now & forever in our hearts.

“ When I was a little girl my Aunt Fay and Uncle Harry took care of me when my family needed help such as when my mother Muriel gave birth to my brother. I will never forget how safe and comforted I felt with them. I feel happy that Fay is being reunited now with her beloved family. She was a blessing to me and my family.

“ Grandma Fay...We can still clearly see you sitting at the dining room table at Mom and Dad's apt celebrating Christmas, Passover and many assorted birthdays. We hope you are still smiling now, just as you were back then. Say hello to Grandpa Harry, Dad and Karen for us. We love you.

“ Grandma Fay, you will be missed. We were fortunate to have you living here in Florida for a while before you moved to Georgia. You had a good long life and now it is time for you to be reunited with Grandpa Harry, my dad and sister Karen. My kids too, remember going to your apartment in Sunrise knowing that their great grandma always had ice cream for them when they came by to visit. Karrah also remembers putting on your costume jewelery when she would visit you. I also remember the stories about you tearing down the airplanes that my dad and Uncle Norman hung on the ceilings when they were kids. We all laughed about that.

Love,
Cheryl, Jeff, Karrah and Cody

“ I have so many memories of spending time with you Grandma. When I was young visiting you and Grandpa Harry in your apartment building. Then we were lucky enough to have you in Florida. My daughter Gabby remembers your singing flower and eating chocolate, vanilla and strawberry ice cream with her bubbie. You had a wonderful life. I hope you have been reunited by Grandpa, my dad and Karen. We love you and will miss you.
