“ Our deepest sympathies. We knew Frances, especially from the bank, for many years and she was always so nice and helpful. Our father, Arnold Edwards, so enjoyed conversations with her. I will tell him of her passing and I know he joins us in these expressions. God bless you, Robert and Linda Wells and Arnold Edwards

“ I lost touch with Frances after her retirement from First State Bank. It was always a pleasure to see her each day at the bank. We had good talks together. She was a lovely lady who lost her beautiful daughter, Suzanne when we were all in college. Suzanne and I were carpool friends for dance class and high school classmates. I remember meeting you, Ben, a few times, too. My condolences to you and your family at this sad time. I know you will miss her.
