“ Edwina and Janice, I just found out about your mother. Your mother was a beautiful lady so sweet and kind. I remember when I met her years ago when Edwina and I became friends. She always made me feel welcome and special. My thoughts and prayers are with your family during this time. May God Bless you all. Deanie

“ i was one of mrs. evans' nurses at palmyra nursing home. i became very close to her more than a patient to me. she and i had a special relationship, her sense of humor was fantstic always up for a good laugh. she was always concern about my well-being and that of my family. I was on vacation last week and was not with her when she became ill I hope and pray she knew how much she meant to me. Ms. Frances here's to you! To her family my deepest and most sincere condolences. She will be missed.
