

Frank Dempsey Guillebeau Obituary

November 15, 1929 - January 9, 2007

Frank Dempsey Guillebeau, MD, 77, a beloved Albany, Georgia physician, died of complications of cancer on January 9, 2007. His funeral service will be THURSDAY 11 AM at Covenant Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Dr. William D. "Biff" Coker and the Rev. Timothy Olds will officiate. Dr. Guillebeau will be taken to Beggs Funeral Home, Lincolnton, Georgia for a visitation Thursday evening. There will be a funeral service for Dr. Guillebeau at Goshen Baptist Church in Lincolnton, GA at 3 PM on Friday with burial to follow in the Church Cemetery. Dr. Guillebeau was born November 15, 1929 in Lincolnton, Georgia. He graduated with honors from Lincoln County High School, where he began his thirst for knowledge and his lifelong commitment to the Lincoln County Red Devils. He continued his academic career, graduating with honors from the University of Georgia, and has always shared his love of the Georgia Bulldogs with friends and family. He went on to earn his MD with top honors from the Medical College of Georgia in 1954. He completed his internship at Grady Memorial Hospital in Atlanta, Georgia, followed by residency at Emory University School of Medicine in Atlanta and Johns Hopkins in Baltimore, Maryland. He instilled the value of education and a love for learning in his children and grandchildren. He moved to Albany, Georgia in 1960 and practiced medicine with Hollis, Johnson, and Guillebeau, which later became Albany Internal Medicine. He was board certified in internal medicine and a fellow in the American College of Cardiology. He helped start Palmyra Park Hospital and was a trustee on its board for several years. He was also a member of the Dougherty County Medical Society, where he once served as its president. He felt that medicine was his calling and enjoyed every day that he spent serving his patients. He loved going to work and helping others. He retired in 1999. He was married to and is survived by Peggy Cullars Guillebeau, his devoted wife of 56 years. He is also survived by their four children and their spouses: Watson Frank Guillebeau and his wife Cindy Rainey Guillebeau of Albany, Georgia; Janet Guillebeau Carter and her husband Mark Carter of Winterville, Georgia; David Cullars Guillebeau and his wife Janet Daniels Guillebeau of Albany, Georgia; and Mark Dempsey Guillebeau and his wife Dawn Brandt Guillebeau of Barnwell, South Carolina. He had seven grandchildren that he loved very much, and who will miss him dearly. They are Kristin Carter, Kyle Guillebeau, Laura Leigh Guillebeau, Ben Guillebeau, Beverly Guillebeau, Ashley Guillebeau, and Lauren Guillebeau. He was preceded in death by his parents, Frank and Leila Guillebeau of Lincolnton, Georgia, as well as his sister, Lenoir LaMountt of Macon, Georgia. He has one brother, Tommy Guillebeau, married to Gail Pitts Guillebeau, of Augusta, Georgia. He was a member of Covenant Presbyterian Church for 40 years and served as a deacon, and elder, and a trustee. He was a member of the John Knox Sunday School Class. He loved his retirement years, finding time to devote to his passions of fly fishing and quail hunting, as well as enjoying nature and spending time with family and friends. He enjoyed simple things like listening to the birds, looking at the stars, and working outdoors. His endless curiosity about life and his thirst for knowledge led him to spend many hours reading and posing questions to his grandchildren to make them think. He loved watching the Red Devils and the Bulldogs play and spending time on his farm in Lincoln County. He will always be remembered for loving his fellow man. He lived by these words: "Live simply, love generously, care deeply, speak kindly, and leave the rest to God." Those desiring may send memorials to Covenant Presbyterian Church, 2126 W. Edgewater Dr., Albany, GA 31707, Goshen Baptist Church Cemetery Fund, c/o Murray Rensen, P.O. Box 191, Lincolnton, GA 30817, or to Alba

“ I was a patient of Dr. Guillebeau from the time he came to Albany until he retired. I still miss him. My husband, John went to Dr. Hollis then to Dr. G. We both thought highly of him. I remember the day he called me, after the receptionist told me he did not remove sutures (I had fallen and had a laceration beneath my chin and had sutures) and told me to come on in. That's the way he was - if you were his patient he was a "General Practitioner". He was a caring compassionate human being and I thank God for my association with him.

“ I have worked in CCU at Palmyra Medical Center for many years and had the priviledge of working with Dr. Guillebeau. He was the kindest most considerate as well as compassionate person I have had the pleasure of working with. The patients as well as the entire staff truly loved him and have missed him since he retired. It has deeply saddened us to know of his passing. I had the opportunity to see him several times since retirement and always told him that I hoped I looked that good when I retired because it sure did agree with him, but the medical field lost a great doctor. Please know that your family will be in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Miss Peggy, Jay and I send our sincere condolences. Dr. Gillebeau will always be remembered along with your family, by Jay and I. Some people have motto's such as "Live simply,love generously, care deeply, speak kindly, and leave the rest to God," but not many live by those standards as did your dear husband. Dr. Guillebeau was a friend to everyone he met. His kind and gentle nature will be remembered and greatly missed by all. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. May God bless you all, and give you strength to face this sadness, in the coming days.
