

Freddie L. Thompson Obituary

December 3, 1956 - November 18, 2004

Mr. Freddie Lee Thompson, 47, departed this life on Thursday Nov. 18, 2004 at his residence in the 1800 block of Avalon Ave. Funeral service will be held on Saturday November 27, 2004 1:00 PM at Oakie Hill Missionary Baptist Church with interment to follow in Pond Church Cemetery in Damascus GA. Pastor Bobby Chattmon officiating. Freddie Lee Thompson was born in Damascus, GA on December 3, 1956. Preceding him into the Kingdom his mother Mary Doris Thompson and a brother Adock Thompson, Jr. At an early age he confessed his life to Christ. Later in his life he rejoined Oakie Hill Missionary Baptist Church where he served until his death. Freddie Lee attended the Public schools here in Dougherty County and was employed by Kimbrell-Stern Funeral Directors and Crown Hill Cemetery. He leaves to mourn and cherish, his loving wife Mildred Thomas and father Adorth Thompson, Sr. 3 sons, Elkwan Elique Thompson, Tony Tapera Thompson and Demetrie Lowery, one step-daughter Carla Hill and her husband Jimmy, 3 step-sons, Randy Starling, Bobby Thomas and Adonis Thomas, 2 sisters, Annester Perry, and Patricia Moore, 3 brothers, James C. Thompson, Lewis Moore, Jr. and Henry Lee Flemming, III, aunts, Willie Pearl Moore, Ethel Mae Moore, Lucille Moore, and Catesa Wimberly, God brother, Larry Simmons and a long life friend Nathaniel Perry. 5 grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, uncles, 4 sister in laws and 5 brother in laws and many friends. The family will receive friend on Friday November 26, 2004 from 6:00 until 7:00 PM at Kimbrell-Stern.

Tribute Wall

“ Freddie L. Thompson Obituary

May 22, 2023 at 10:29 AM

“ Freddie L. Thompson Obituary

May 22, 2023 at 01:29 AM

“ We wish to extend our deepest sympathy at this difficult time, to the family. Revelation 21:4&5 was very encouraging to our family and we hope the same for yours.

Tommy&Glenda - December 07, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ I am praying for God to give you peace in your hearts and minds.

TreCiera D. Crawford - November 29, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ We will miss the laughter that Fred Lee gave to us.

Hop & Kyndell

Hope Wright - November 26, 2004 at 12:00 AM