

Fredrick P. West Obituary

August 19, 1926 - April 4, 2004

A native of Cuthbert, Mr. West had lived in Albany for the past five years. He served in the Navy during WWII and was in the South Pacific when Pearl Harbor was bombed. He and one other sailor almost froze to death while on patrol. They were the only two out of sixteen that survived that night on patrol. After serving in the Navy, Mr. West joined the Army and was sent to Europe. He was the wielder and the owner/operator of West Company. Mr. West was a member of Bronwood Baptist Church.

Tribute Wall

“ Fredrick P. West Obituary

May 22, 2023 at 10:29 AM

“ Fredrick P. West Obituary

May 22, 2023 at 01:29 AM

“ I miss you Cris. Love Jerry

jerry hughes - April 26, 2004 at 12:00 AM