“ I remember often climbing the metal back stairs to Gail's office and returning the key for the car I had used. She kept our fleet well maintained and was never too busy to say a quick hello. I will miss her.

“ Gail was truly one of the strongest women I have ever known. Even tho we fought our cancer battle together, she had so many more challenges than I could ever have imagined and never once faltered or complained. She is a true warrior on the eyes of so many....her strength was never-ending. Knowing and growing up with Gail was a priveledge... she was strong in childhood as well. I pray for peace and comfort for her family in the coming months. RIP sweet Gail.
