

Gayle H. Young Obituary

July 3, 1946 - February 21, 2010

Born July 3, 1946 in Columbus, GA Mrs. Young lived most of her life in Albany, GA, where she was a member of First United Methodist Church. She lived in Macon for the past 27 years where she was a member of Pleasant Hill Community Church in Roberta, GA. Gayle will be remembered for her vibrant, "bubbly" personality. If you were in need of help, she was always there for you; no one was ever turned away. Her love for her dogs through the years showed how much compassion she had for all of God's creatures. If you ever spent time with Gayle, you were amazed at the amount of "old time sayings" she used in her conversations. She was a devoted wife to her husband Tommy who loved her with all of his heart. Her five children knew the special love only a mother can give. She will truly be missed by her Mother and all of her family and friends. Survivors include her husband of 33 years, Thomas James Young of Macon, GA, daughters, Teresa Mayhew of Eatonton, GA and Robin Renee Young of Fairmont, W. VA, sons, Glen E. Young and James E. Young both of Macon, GA and Thomas J. Young, Jr. of Fairmont, W.VA, grandchildren, Wade Wesley Mayhew, Jr., Matthew Mayhew, Autumn Young, James M. Young, Jr. and Jamarco Wilson, two great-grandchildren, mother, Doris P. Williams of Albany, GA, sister, Carol Horne Shuffstall and her husband Richard of Etowah, NC, aunt, Helen P. Loyless of Albany, GA, brother-in-laws, John Christofferson and William S. Young, sister-in-law, Barbara Patisaul. Mrs. Young was preceded in death by her father, Jesse Eugene Horne, sister, Loretta Horne Christofferson and her grandparents, Mr.

and Mrs. Hobson D. (Mildred) Peek.

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to the family especially to Glen Young, my nephew. Your mother was a very loving and generous person and I am sure you all will miss her terribly. I loved her as a friend and also as a sister-in-law. My prayers are with you during this time of need. May God bless and keep you all.
