This photo was taken about 16 years ago in Pavo at my sister's house when we all went to the Peacock Festival. I was scared to death of Uncle Bubba when I was a child. He was 15 years older than me and when he was a teenager he and his buddies would be running around at Nanny's and Granddad's being typical teenagers. However, we became close in later years. We would all get together for the Gurr family reunions and reconnect. After Mom and Dad died he and Aunt Nancy filled in the void for me, Robin and Jeff. He will be greatly missed.
