“ I did not know Uncle George had passed. The last I spoke with him we had a warm conversation. He was working on his passion; a farm issue, and I was sitting on the beach watching my son swimming in the Atlantic.

My grandmother, Mary Frances "Sugar" King Thomas Brooks was close with George. Sugar passed in 1992 and the ongoing communication with family eventually faded with time.

Aunt Eunice and Uncle George were at my wedding at SugarBrook Farms in 1981. They both were special and dear. It was a good time and I cherish the time with all of the family around us.

It is with sadness that I see this obituary today. I was looking up Uncle George on Google to see if he still had the same 1327 phone number...

Rest in Peace, Uncle George.
