“ Paula - I am so sorry to hear about your Dad. We never get ready for our parents to leave us but you know he is in a better place now - no more pain and suffering or treatments that made him feel so bad. He certainly fought a long and courageous battle and lived longer than most people with the same condition; a tribute to the determination he had to live and not give up. He lives on in you and you have many wonderful and special times you shared to keep his memory alive with you. God bless you and your family during your time of grief and loss. Love you, my friend! - Juanita
