Even though it has been a long time since we have been together; I well remember the times we were together growing up My sisters Josephine and Sandra and I will always remember you as sort of the brother we never had. “Sad but its true-hard but its fair” summed up the world view of this hard nosed,hard driving man. Never asking and never giving quarter-ever. I never had anything but the utmost respect for Glen. He dealt with the world as he found it and fought it to much more than a draw. Even in his final days, all he wanted was to get back on his feet and back into the eternal fight. A fighter. He will be missed.

“Daddy I light a candle for you and it will burn forever in my heart to remind me that you are with God and looking down on us. It will remind us to love each other and get along as that was always your most important wish was for the 4 of us to get along and love each other. You were a great daddy and taught me so very much! I am who I am because of you and that is something we both can be proud of and I will continue to make you proud. While I am the oldest of your children I have always been my daddy's little girl. It comforts me and gives me peace to know you are in heaven with God!! Save me a spot right next to you. I know that you knew just how much I love you and that is something that comforts me as well. I love you Daddy and am glad you are finally able to rest!! I will see you in my dreams!!

“ My Buddy Glen! Now he was a testimony to life- MAN WHAT A RUN!!!! From my early career days until current, Glen remained a trusted advisor in many aspects. We used to chat over coffee (me) and chewing tobacco (him) at early morning hours on business, real estate and life in general. Glen always had a kooky joke to tell. I have always said with all due respect for my friend - "if you could sit and weed through the 90% of BS, there was 10% of pure solid gold information in his words". Glen did this on purpose - to test all that he interacted with. His Intelligence Quotient was stellar and you could communicate much more so with eye contact and facial expressions than mere words. Glen talked a tough game but was just a big gruff teddy bear.

McMickle Family - if I can do anything to ease your burdens, please don't hesitate to ask.

*Sincerely with all due respect,
Sam Shugart*
