“ I will truly miss you Mrs. Faye. You were a shining light at Radium Springs Baptist church. You were always so kind to me and I fondly remembering you caring for me when Betty passed. You and your family treated me as your own and I will never forget that. I still have the Santas you painted for me and I will cherish them forever. My prayers go out to the Clegg family.

“ Our deepest sympathy is extended to the family. I, too, remember those good old days at Radium Springs Baptist Church. Faye & Julian were right in the middle of it all. I remember so well how the youth would go out and visit on Saturday mornings and how much fun we had with that old school bus we bought. We put it to use. Things are different now, but we can still hold on to our memories. I miss those old days. God bless all of y'all. Horace Keen
