“ Mr and Mrs Harpole,

I can only imagine the sadness you must be feeling at this time. Scott was a "fine friend" to me. Always. He and I were Pledge Brothers and I was drawn to his kindred spirit the first time I met him. He could always be found w/ a good laugh and concerned spirit for those he cared about. I admit we drifted after UGA. We did catch up on Facebook, recently, and i Know he adored his boys. I am saddened the Lord has taken him home but, God has a plan. I pray that y'all will find peace and that Graham and Will will be in your safe keeping.

RIP, Scott Harpole.

My Brother. My friend

Sincerely,

“ Dear Mr. & Mrs. Harpole,

I am so sorry to hear about Scott's death. I pray the Lord will overshadow your grief with His great comfort. I was a fraternity brother of Scott's and since I was a pastor Scott called me on many occasions to talk about the Lord, his struggles, and we prayed together many times over the phone. I talked to him just a few weeks and he was asking me to pray for one of his boys. I will miss our conversations and his smile.
